

WELCOME TO YOUNG CANADIANS IN FINANCE

Network, Knowledge and Opportunity

Young Canadians in Finance provides Canadians working in the financial industry an exclusive network that enables them to take leading roles in Finance. We promote the collaboration and Education of our members to achieve a greater collective success and build a more competitive Canadian financial community.

Young Canadians in Finance builds a network through cultural events where members can interact and share ideas. These events are centered on Canadian cultural institutions that benefit from our support.

Young Canadians in Finance provides learning opportunities through our conference call series where we ask Canadian leaders to comment on current economic and political conditions in Canada.

Through Network and Knowledge, Young Canadians in Finance is a catalyst for Opportunity. We work towards the fulfillment of our member's ambitions and the improvement of our great country, Canada.

ABOUT YOUNG CANADIANS IN FINANCE

Young Canadians in Finance was founded by Michael Blickstead and Paul Desmarais III in 2006. The organization continues to grow and aims to be the leading network for Young Canadians in Finance.

Michael Blickstead: Co-President and Co-Chairman of Young Canadians in Finance. Michael graduated from Harvard College in 2005. He currently works at Goldman Sachs in their Private Equity Group.

Paul Desmarais III: Co-President and Co-Chairman of Young Canadians in Finance. Paul Desmarais III graduated from Harvard College in 2004. He currently works at Goldman Sachs in their Special Situations Group.

Nicolas Desmarais: Vice President of YCIF San Francisco, Director. Nicolas Desmarais graduated from Amherst College in 2007. He is currently at Bain Consulting.

Brett Hickey: Vice President of Finance, Director. Brett graduated from McGill University. He is currently an Executive Vice President of Aegis NY Venture Fund, LP.

Marc Andre Nantais: Vice President of Culture, Director. Marc Andre graduated from HEC in 2003. He is currently at Goldman Sachs in their Sales and Trading Division.

Contact Us

Young Canadians In Finance
mailbox@ycif.org